

STOP AIDS Keep the promise

The goal of the World AIDS Campaign is to energize and support an effective and sustained response to the AIDS epidemic. By helping partners to work together at national and international levels, the Campaign aims to broaden the partnership of those shaping the response to AIDS. Crucial to its success will be increased public awareness of past policy commitments and promises on AIDS, including the Declaration of Commitment on HIV/AIDS.

Registration & Breakfast 7:45am (Promptly)

Event Speaker – George M. Johnson, a Journalist, Activist, and Philanthropist born in Plainfield NJ, educated at Virginia Union University with a B.S. in Finance and Bowie State University with a M.A. in Human Resource Development respectively. In 2015, George decided to follow his passion in activism, switching careers and going into Healthcare with a focus on LGBTQ HIV work for Us Helping Us People into Living. In 9 months time, George became the Director of Testing and Counseling and Young Adult Services, ensuring proper healthcare for marginalized black LGBTQ youth dealing with HIV. George became an avid activist fighting against HIV criminalization and health disparities within the Black community, through protest, events and writing. He currently serves as a 2018 State of NY Spokesperson for the HIV Stops With Me campaign and a columnist.
